

NEIGHBORHOOD LINK PRIVACY POLICY

NeighborhoodLink is a service of the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs, Cleveland State University and The Center for Community Solutions. We are committed to protecting your privacy.

NeighborhoodLink has a limited number of features that require you to provide your email address or other information. No personal information that you give to NeighborhoodLink will be given away or sold to any third party without express permission; however, we do reserve the right to release information you have submitted when such release is required by law. By providing information about yourself or your family on NeighborhoodLink, you are giving consent for the Center to use this information internally.

If you have any questions or feedback about this privacy statement, please send a message to our web master.